STATEMENT OF REASONS

VII COURT DETERMINATIONS OF RESTITUTION

- A ☐ Restitution Not Applicable.
- B Total Amount of Restitution: 206,972.00
- C Restitution not ordered (Check only one.):
- 1 ☐ For offenses for which restitution is otherwise mandatory under 18 U.S.C. § 3663A, restitution is not ordered because the number of identifiable victims is so large as to make restitution impracticable under 18 U.S.C. § 3663A(c)(3)(A).
  - 2 ☐ For offenses for which restitution is otherwise mandatory under 18 U.S.C. § 3663A, restitution is not ordered because determining complex issues of fact and relating them to the cause or amount of the victims' losses would complicate or prolong the sentencing process to a degree that the need to provide restitution to any victim would be outweighed by the burden on the sentencing process under 18 U.S.C. § 3663A(c)(3)(B).
  - 3 ☐ For other offenses for which restitution is authorized under 18 U.S.C. § 3663 and/or required by the sentencing guidelines, restitution is not ordered because the complication and prolongation of the sentencing process resulting from the fashioning of a restitution order outweigh the need to provide restitution to any victims under 18 U.S.C. § 3663(a)(1)(B)(ii).
  - 4 ☐ Restitution is not ordered for other reasons. (Explain.)
- D ☐ Partial restitution is ordered for these reasons (18 U.S.C. § 3553(c)):

THE COURT: There are two important factors that I have considered in determining the appropriate sentence to impose.

Ms. Al Jader, will you stand, please?

One of them -- actually, each of them is a factor that each of the counsel for the government and your counsel have referred to. And I have tried to balance these two factors. One of them is the deterrence factor. I see that there are a number of cases like this where foreign nationals bring domestic servants into the country and either misrepresent what they are paying and do not pay them adequately, and it should not be the case that this can happen and someone of wealth and privilege can do it and the only punishment is that you pay fines; that you are deported; and, in short, that the punishment is simply financial. That's one factor, because in that sense, it becomes a kind of cost of doing business.

The other factor, which Mr. Egbert has laid out before me, has to do with your family circumstances. And there's more to it than even he has said that I have considered. Because he points to your value to your husband. He did not mention your children -- he did mention your children but did not elaborate on your children. I know that

1 you have children, six children, and they are separated, or 2 some are here, some are in Saudi Arabia; but any prison term 3 would affect them because they would have no guidance from 4 either parent for any term of imprisonment, and they are at a
5 time in their lives where such guidance is required.

6 Now, as to the circumstances involving your 7 husband, I am -- I guess the word is impressed by the devotion
8 you have shown to your husband. The presentence report informs 9 me that he was injured at age 25 and for the following 16 years
10 you have remained by his side. The presentence report
11 indicates that his family desired to step in and to have you
12 leave and have you abandon your children, and you refused to do 13 that. You stayed by his side and stayed and cared for your 14 children essentially by yourself.

15 I think these do speak of extraordinary family 16 circumstances. It may be that others can provide some care for 17 your husband. There is a dispute in the record about whether 18 other people have cared for him; but I agree with Mr. Egbert
19 that the 16 years that you have devoted yourself to him is not 20 something that can be replaced by a paid person, a helper. And 21 your children, I understand, are only recently coming to be 22 able to help him. I don't believe that it's possible to take 23 away what has been provided by way of emotional support by you 24 to your husband and to your children, but particularly to your 25 husband, during this period.

1           So it seems to me that Mr. Egbert is right, that 2     you are irreplaceable in this sense. And so I don't think a
3     prison term is appropriate for you.

4           I do think, however, because I am concerned about 5     deterrence that I have to do more than credit you with your 6     home detention. I think I'm going to impose a further period
7     of home detention of six months with probation, and there is a 8     community service requirement I'm going to impose and you will 9     hear that the community service requirement that I impose I 10    want to approve and I'll spell it out. Because you have 11    something I think that can be of value to the community. The 12    kind of community service I want you to perform during this 13    period you are on home confinement I want to be something that 14    will take advantage of your ability, your language, and your 15    Arabic and your familiarity with Arab culture. I think 16    there's -- we are sorely lacking in understanding Arab culture
17    and the Arabic language. I was struck by the report of -- what 18    is it called, the special committee -- the Baker-Hamilton
19    Commission -- whatever that committee that reported to the 20    President about what to do about the war in Iraq. There are a 21    thousand people in the embassy in Iraq and only eight of them
22    can speak Arabic fluently. So I think that the community
23    service that I want to impose on you I want to take advantage 24    of your abilities in this regard.

25           So, for all these reasons, the sentence I'm going

1 to impose on you will be one of probation with this community
2 service requirement. And I will impose the requirements that
